

A Kings Ransom

Anybody here remember Sean O'Casey?

Joseph was a man with his heart in the right place
Got beat by the 'Cheshires' on Saturday night yeah
He got his own devolution and his own revolution
Coming apart in the pale moonlight
We fell in love too soon
The only really only place is on the moon

Singing I still need your love and affection
I don't mind you coming in drunk
I'll be outside the pearly gates singing
All I want is a king's ransom in love

Bye bye bills and bye bye bailiff
Fighting and drinking on Capitol Hill
He got his own devolution and his own revolution
Falling apart and he probably will

"Hey son", "what mum?"
"Do you think I've got it all wrong?"

Singing I still need your love and affection
I don't mind you coming in drunk
I'll be outside the pearly gates singing
All I want is a king's ransom in love

Tell the world now
We fell in love too soon
The only really only place is on the moon
